The Government of The Commonwealth of The Bahamas (GOCB) has received financing from the Caribbean Development Bank (CDB) in an amount equivalent to sixteen million, one hundred and eighty thousand United States dollars (USD$16.18mn) towards the cost of The College of The Bahamas Transformation Project and intends to apply a portion of the proceeds of this financing to eligible payments under a contract for which this invitation is issued. Payments by CDB will be made only at the request of GOCB and upon approval by CDB, and will be subject in all respects to the terms and conditions of the Financing Agreement. The Financing Agreement prohibits withdrawal from the financing account for the purpose of any payment to persons or entities, or for any import of goods, if such payment or import, to the knowledge of CDB, is prohibited by a decision of the United Nations Security Council taken under Chapter VII of the Charter of the United Nations. No party other than GOCB shall derive any rights from the Financing Agreement or have any claim to the proceeds of the Financing.

The College of The Bahamas (COB), the Executing Agency, now wishes to procure consultancy services for a Security Master Plan. The objective of the consultancy is to provide a comprehensive public safety and security assessment and security consulting services for COB. The consultant will prepare a Security Master Plan for COB and draft tender documents for the supply and installation of equipment to implement the first phase of recommendations for the enhancement of operational security for COB facilities. The duration of the assignment is expected to be for a period of 3 months.

COB now invites interested eligible individual consultants to submit Expressions of Interest for the provision of these consultancy services.

a.) the persons are citizens or bona fide residents of an eligible country; and a.) in all cases, the consultant has no arrangement and undertakes not to make any arrangements, whereby any substantial part of the net profits or other tangible benefits of the contract will accrue or be paid to a person not a citizen or bona fide resident of an eligible country.

Eligible countries are member countries of CDB.

The attention of interested Consultants is drawn to paragraph 1.9 of CDB’s Guidelines for the Selection and Engagement of Consultants (2011), setting forth CDB’s policy on conflict of interest.

In the assessment of submissions, consideration will be given to technical competence and qualifications and experience on similar assignments. All information must be submitted in English. Further information may be obtained from the first address below between 0900 and 1700 hours Monday to Friday.

The original and one hard copy of the Expressions of Interest must be received at the first address below no later than 1700 hours Friday, April 24 2015 and one hard copy must be sent simultaneously to CDB at the second address below. The sealed envelope containing each submission should include the name and address of the applicant and shall be clearly marked “Expression of Interest – Consultancy Services for Security Master Plan”.

Following the assessment of submissions, the most technically capable and appropriately experienced applicant will be invited to negotiate a contract to provide the consultancy services. GOCB reserves the right to accept or reject late applications or to cancel the present invitation partially or in its entirety. It will not be bound to assign any reason for not short-listing any applicant and will not defray any costs incurred by any applicant in the preparation and submission of Expressions of Interest.
