UPCOMING EVENTS

❖ Construction begins…
Site preparation for the construction of the Harry C. Moore Library and Information Centre begins today. Carl Treco Construction Company has responsibility for the preparation of this site, which encompasses a portion of the parking lot that is currently being used by Sbarro’s. The College solicits the patience of its employees, students and Sbarro’s Restaurant during this period. Queries or concerns should be directed to Anthony Burrows at 302-4458 or email aburrows@cob.edu.bs

❖ The Colour of Harmony…
Under the patronage of His Excellency Arthur D. Hanna, Governor General of the Commonwealth of The Bahamas and in honour of the late Pauline Glasby, the School of Communication and Creative Arts will host the 19th annual Colour of Harmony on Tuesday 8th April at 6:30 p.m. at the Portia Smith Services Centre. The event will showcase students expression through the arts.

❖ Graduation Meeting…
Persons who are participating in the May graduation ceremony are asked to attend an important graduation meeting on Wednesday 9th April at 6:30 p.m. in the SUB.

❖ New Policy on Library Access…
The Council of The College of The Bahamas has approved a new policy with respect to access to the Library. The policy, general regulations and membership application may be obtained from The College’s website www.cob.edu.bs/Library/index.php.

❖ The Fall 2008 registration group schedule... is being revised. We invite you to check this page for further information on your group and registration time. The first registration group is scheduled to begin on Wednesday 9th April 2008.

Former Nursing Chair to be honoured…
A banquet will be held in honour of Ms. Hilda Douglas, former Chairperson of The School of Nursing & Allied Health Professions. The banquet will be held on Friday 11th April at 7pm at SuperClubs Breezes. Persons interested in purchasing tickets may contact Lindel Deveaux-Stuart or Leah Rolle at 325-5551.

-------------------------------------------------------------------

The Planning Office… invites teaching faculty to participate in the Faculty Survey of Student Engagement (FSSE) 2008. This is a very important survey for The College as it allows faculty to indicate the engagement levels of their students. The information will be used to inform our discussions on how we can enhance the student experience here. Please check your College email for details and get involved before examinations.

Congratulations!
❖ To all of the students who secured positions during the recent COBUS elections, especially Mr. Perry Newton who will serve as the president of COBUS for the 2008/09 academic year.
❖ To the men and women’s track team who won the open division of The College’s first track and field classic held on the 29th March.

Health Tip for This Week
The brain is a living organ and is affected by what we eat in the short and long term. A healthy body equals a healthy brain.
Safety Tip for This Week

Ensure that vehicles are properly locked at all times, and do not leave handbags, cell phones and other valuable items exposed in plain view.

Condolences are extended to Ms. Tracie Thompson on the passing of her father, and Miss Paulette Davis on the passing of her sister. Let us remember these families in our prayers.

The Office of Communication (OC) will issue a weekly bulletin providing The College with updates and announcements. If you have information that is pertinent to The College community, particularly those that require mass mailing, please email paulettemcphee@cob.edu.bs
