Official Opening for New Offices of the Confucius Institute at CHMI

His Excellency Hu Shan, outgoing Ambassador of the People’s Republic of China, along with COB administrators presided over the official opening ceremony for the new location of The Confucius Institute at The College of The Bahamas on Wednesday, November 6th. The Institute facilitates instruction in the Chinese language and culture and opportunities to study in the People’s Republic of China. The centre is located on the ground floor of the Culinary and Hospitality Management Institute. Former College administrators Dr. Rhonda Chipman-Johnson, Dr. Irene Moss and Dr. Brendamae Cleare along with Mrs. Jenny Bain-Bethell were also honoured for their commitment to the work of the Confucius Institute.

Anatol Rodgers Memorial Lecture

Dr. Susan Searls Giroux, Professor of English and Associate V.P. of Humanities, McMaster University, was one of the speakers at the Anatol Rodgers Memorial Lecture held last week. She discussed, in part, factors tied to global and neo-liberalism.

The other featured speaker was her husband Dr. Henry Giroux, Cultural Critic and University Professor of English, McMaster University.

Name the Cafeteria-Top Six Choices

Vote for your favourite Cafeteria name:

Bits and Bytes; Just The Place; The Pond Cafe; Taste Bud Heaven; Pond Side Cafe; Keva’s Cafe

Email your vote to: namethecaf@cob.edu.bs

First Year Art Students in Exhibition

From left are students: Naborro Newton, Seth Bastian, Christina Wong, Tatyanna Pratt, Keith Thompson and Christopher Gooding.

Private Trust Company celebrated its 30th anniversary with a private reception held on November 7th at which COB first year art students, under the direction of Assistant Professor Keisha Oliver, showcased their work. Several pieces of art work were also sold.
School of Business - Speakers’ Corner
Tuesday, November 12th - 6:00 p.m.
- Featuring Dr. K. Jonathan Rodgers
Harry C. Moore Library and Information Centre, Auditorium

Alumni Leaders Series
Thursday, November 14th - 2:00 p.m.
Harry C. Moore Library and Information Centre, Auditorium

An Afternoon of Music
November 14th, 2013 - 2:00 p.m.
Featuring Blind Blake, Chris Justilien and many others
Student Union Building

HIV Testing - Getting to Zero
November 14th, 2013 - 10:00 a.m. - 3:00 p.m.
Oakes Field Campus - Free HIV Testing hosted by School of Social Sciences

Meet the Writer
November 15th, 2013 - 6:00 p.m.
Featuring: Mr. Alephonsion Deng - A Lost Boy of Sudan
Harry C. Moore Library and Information Centre, Auditorium

School of Math, Physics and Technology Week
November 18th - 22nd
SMPT Week
Theme: Science and Technology, Shaping the Modern Bahamas

SMPT Alumni Mixer
November 16th at 7:00 p.m. / email: cwatson@cob.edu.bs
Harry C. Moore Library and Information Centre

Critical Caribbean Symposium Series
November 22nd & 23rd
Featuring: Kamau Brathwaite
Harry C. Moore Library and Information Centre, Auditorium

Evening of Christmas Music
November 27th, 2013 - 7:00 p.m.
St. Andrew’s Presbyterian Kirk
$10 Admission - Call 302-4484 for more information

Writing of Light
November 28th at 4:00 p.m.
Chapter One Bookstore

“Deep Blue” CD Launch & Concert
Tuesday, December 3rd - 6:30 p.m. at Government House
CDs will be on sale. Call 302-4485 for more information.

COB Staff at BHRDA Conference
COB staff members recently participated in the Bahamas Human Resources Development Association’s (BHRDA) annual conference, exposition & awards ceremony held under the theme: HR, Shaping The Future. Congratulations to Mrs. Tameka Butler-Burton, honoured with the HR Manager Award and Amanda Ferguson, nominated for the HR Rising Star Award.

C Force Participates in EMC Conference
The College faculty musical trio known as C Force - Christine Gangelhoff, Christen Justilien and Christy Lee, presented and performed recently at the Second International Arts Conference under the theme “The Creative Industries: Sustainability and Social Transformation” hosted by the Edna Manley College of the Visual and Performing Arts in Kingston, Jamaica. The trio performed music from its newest CD called Deep Blue. They also shared the works of Bahamian artist John Cox and photographer Jeff Major, contributors to the CD’s artwork.

Notices
Lost and Found
If you have lost an item or if you have found an item seemingly misplaced, please visit the Lost and Found Office in the Security Department located at the Munnings Building (next to KFC). You may also visit any of the security booths located around campus. Lost property means any unattended, abandoned, misplaced or forgotten item like jewellery, cash, books, documents, or College ids found on college premises. Please contact: 302-4493/302-4327302-4578 for more information.