Critical Caribbean Symposium Series Analyzes Impact of Caribbean Poet

Scholars and literary enthusiasts were fully engaged last week in analyzing the contributions of legendary Caribbean poet and scholar Dr. Kamau Brathwaite. Dr. Brathwaite’s work has explored the historical links and events that have contributed to the development of the black population in the Caribbean. The photo at right shows Elaine Savory, Professor of English Literature at The New School, New York, who gave the keynote address on Thursday, November 21st, 2013 at the Harry C. Moore Library and Information Centre.

Renowned Artist Visits Art 100 Class

Mr. Kim Smith, one of the leading pencil artists in North America and the Caribbean, internationally known for his hyper-realistic images of the natural environment and historical architecture visited students of Art 100. Mr. Smith talked to the students about the value of drawing and the key components to developing one’s creative practice. He also demonstrated how to achieve hyper-realism using coloured pencils.

Mr. Kim Smith interacts with the class of Art 100 on the aspects of his specialty in pencil artistry that bring hyper-realism to life.

Speakers’ Corner A Success

Dr. K. Jonathan Rodgers drew a capacity crowd as the inaugural presenter at the School of Business’ “Speakers’ Corner,” where he addressed the topic “The Bahamian Dream.” Dr. Rodgers called for a new fiscal plan for The Bahamas, a reduction and restructuring of the national debt, tax reform and a new land reform policy. He also proposed an alternative energy plan and the introduction of a national food security programme.

Int’l Journal of Bahamian Studies - Call for Research

The International Journal of Bahamian Studies is looking for articles on The College’s history, development and evolution to be placed in volume 20 (2014). A 2-3 paragraph proposal should be submitted to Managing Editor Ms. Virginia Ballance before December 1, 2013. Completed manuscripts are due before April 30, 2014. For further information email: vballance@cob.edu.bs
November and December Events

The College of The Bahamas

School of Business

presents the

STUDENTS’ VOICES FORUM on

The Implications of the Value Added Tax in The Bahamas
Research Presentations

Tuesday, November 26th, 2013, 6:00 p.m. - 8:00 p.m.
Harry C. Moore Library and Information Centre, Auditorium

Northern Bahamas Campus Happenings

Members of Sisterhood Club of the Northern Bahamas Campus took their support of breast cancer awareness off campus recently when they participated in The 2nd Annual Relay for Cancer Road Race in Grand Bahama.

Nat’l Women’s Week Forum - Nov. 27th

As a part of National Women’s Week, the former Premier of Bermuda, Dame Jennifer Smith, will give an address at a special forum on the topic: “Women in Governance and Leadership” on Wednesday November 27th at 10:00 a.m. in auditorium of the Harry C. Moore Library and Information Centre.

An Evening of Christmas Music

November 27th, 2013 - 7:00 p.m.
St. Andrew’s Presbyterian Kirk
$10 Admission - Call 302-4484 for more information.

Writers of Light Photojournalism Exhibition

November 28th at 4:00 p.m. - Chapter One Bookstore

Public Lecture on Policy and Trade - Dec. 4th

The Hon. Fred Mitchell, Minister of Foreign Affairs and Immigration, will be the featured speaker at a public lecture on “The Bahamas in the World: Foreign Policy and Trade Issues” on Wednesday, 4 December, 2013, at 6:30 p.m. in the auditorium of the Harry C. Moore Library and Information Centre.

Mark Your Calendar - DECEMBER

“Deep Blue” CD Launch & Concert

Tuesday, December 3rd - 6:30 p.m. at Government House
CDs will be on sale. Call 302-4485 for more information.

Notices

EXTENDED HOURS OF OPERATION - LIBRARY
Beginning November 25th, 2013 and ending December 18th, 2013, the Harry C. Moore Library will have extended hours of operation for one additional hour each day as follows. The extra hour is for quiet study and no other library services will be offered.

Mon-Thurs: 8am - 10pm
Fridays: 9:30am - 7pm
Saturdays 9am - 6pm
Sundays 1-6pm

NEW STUDENT ORIENTATON - POSITIONS AVAILABLE
Help us welcome new students by joining our New Student Orientation team for Spring 2014. Various positions are available including seminar presenters, protocol associates, culinary hosts, greeters, resource personnel and programme moderators. Orientation date is January 6th, 2014 from 8:00 a.m. - 6:00 p.m.