“Public Forum on The Bahamas and World Affairs

Using the platform of a public forum held at The College of The Bahamas, the Minister of Foreign Affairs and Immigration Hon. Fred Mitchell has called for a transformation of the culture of inertia that plagues The Bahamas. Minister Mitchell delivered a presentation on The Bahamas in The World: Foreign Policy and Trade last Wednesday. He maintained that The Bahamas must be able to offer the world a well-trained workforce, proactive country with an eye toward the future and a government that makes timely decisions.

AT LEFT: At the podium, Minister of Foreign Affairs and Immigration Hon. Fred Mitchell tells the audience that we must fight for a culture of proactivity. He said "The Bahamas must restrain itself from acting like we are an isolated island people.”

Family Guardian Gives The Gift of Education

The Family Guardian Insurance Company Limited recently made its annual donation to The College of $25,000 to fund scholarships for undergraduate students under the Family Guardian In-Course Bursary Award Programme. The scholarships are awarded to students with a demonstrated financial need for a maximum of four years.

Who would have thought that petting a kitten or canine, or stroking the feathers of a bird could relieve so much stress? Students, staffers and faculty got to do just that last week when the Office of Health and Safety, the Campus Life Department and the Wellness Centre arranged for the second annual stress relieving camp on Independence Park. The animals were provided by the Bahamas Humane Society. Massages were also added to the mix for an afternoon of tranquility.

Arbitration & Investment Forum - Jan. 23rd

The 2nd annual Arbitration and Investment Forum will take place on Thursday, January 23rd, 2014 at the Harry C. Moore Library and Information Centre. It will focus on the topics: Mediation as a Complement to Arbitration, Becoming an International and Regional Arbitration Hub and Arbitration Clauses in Practice: Form and Substance. CPE hours will be awarded.
