Student Forum with President Boze

Students are invited to attend another Open Forum with President Boze to be held on Wednesday, March 23 at 8:00 p.m. in The College’s Performing Arts Centre. We wish to see you there.

Brown Bag - 28th March

Dr. Raymond Oenbring will present on “Corpus Linguistics and the Internet as Research Tools” and Mr. Michael Stevenson will present on “Re-Storying Restorative Justice in The Bahamas”. The Brown Bag will be held in the foyer of the PAC, 12:30 - 1:30 p.m.

Faculty use of the International Journal of Bahamian Studies

The Institutional Planning Office is seeking important information on the extent to which faculty use the International Journal of Bahamian Studies (IJBS), The College’s research journal, to develop their curriculum. The office is undertaking an Internet-based survey to obtain feedback from faculty on this matter. All instructional faculty members are, therefore, invited to complete the survey at the following site: http://www.surveymonkey.com/s/IJBS_survey

Free Speech Project

The School of English Studies hosts the Free Speech Project with invited guests Hon. Branville McCartney, MP for Bamboo Town and Mr. Renward Wells of the National Development Party. The topic is “The Political State of The Nation Today and The Way Forward”.

Thursday, March 24th, 2:00 p.m. - 4:00 p.m., Michael Eldon Complex rooms 1B and 1C.
24 Hour Information Commons - Now Open!

The 24-hour Information Commons is now operational in the Harry C. Moore library. Access to this facility – after the library’s closure at 9 p.m. – may be gained through the exterior door to the Information Commons which is opposite the Student Union Building. A valid College of The Bahamas identification is required for access.

Library users are reminded to use the facility properly. Already furniture has been defaced and garbage is not being properly disposed of. Let’s all take ownership and ensure that the library and its resources are preserved for the future.

Research Edge with Chaswell Hanna

Students, faculty and staff attended an informative and interesting Research Edge presentation on “Reducing Murders in The Bahamas”, given by Sgt. Chaswell Hanna of the Royal Bahamas Police Force.

Lunch and Dinner at Choices

Plan to have lunch at Choices this week! Entrees include veal chops, jerk pork loin and roasted lemon and herb chicken. On Wednesday they celebrate the cuisine of Korea and Thailand with a spicy Asian menu. Dinner on the 25th features a tamarind sorbet and a Grand Marnier souffle.

Price is $15.00 per person. Discounts are available to C.O.B students and employees with valid identification card. Drinks additional. For reservations please call 323-5804

Blue Hole Presentation

The Small Island Sustainability Programme hosted a town hall meeting with Mr. Brian Kakuk, Director of The Bahamas Caves Research Foundation (BCRF) on the topic: “Blue Holes in The Bahamas, Exploration, Research and Conservation of a Unique Bahamian Resource” During his presentation, Mr. Kakuk provided insight into the astonishing blue holes located on Abaco Island, his numerous diving explorations and the rich Bahamian history fossilized miles undersea.

OAS Scholarship

The OAS offers scholarships to citizens or permanent residents of OAS Member States for 2012-2013.

Go to http://www.educoas.org/Portal/es/oasbecas/OAS%20Scholarships%202012-2013%20Portal.pdf and apply for a scholarship to pursue undergraduate or graduate studies (Bachelor’s, Master’s, or Doctorate degree) and/or graduate research that leads to a degree. For further information contact: scholarships@oas.org.

UWI 5th Annual Research Day

The UWI School of Clinical Medicine and Research hosts its 5th Annual Research Day at the School of Nursing Auditorium, Grosvenor Close Campus, Friday April 8th, 2011. The theme this year is “Research: Building the Foundation for National Health Priorities”.

For more information or to RSVP call Ms. Pearl Hollingsworth at 322-2861 ext. 2626.

College & Career Readiness Forum

The Lyford Cay Foundation invites you to a public forum by Dr. David T. Conley, professor of Educational Policy and Leadership, University of Oregon. Dr. Conley will present on “Building Tomorrow Today: Next steps for creating a College and Career ready culture”, on Thursday, March 24th, 7:00 - 9:00 p.m. at the Independence Ballroom B, Sheraton Nassau Beach Resort.

RSVP: 362-4910 or e-mail: speakerseries@lyfordcayfoundation.org