Linguistics 220

Did you know that there’s no such thing as “proper” or “bad” English? Did you know that both men and women gossip? Do you want to find out why Bahamian dialect is a creole? Or why many Nassauians, Androsians and Harbour Islanders don’t sound the same?

Then enroll in Linguistics 220 this Fall! The only prerequisite is ENG 120. For more information call 302-4381 or visit the School of English Studies in A97.

ENG 216: Introduction to Film

Interested in learning more about film? Want to spend the summer watching them? Sign up for ENG 216 this summer! Visit http://vimeo.com/22175998 to watch an exciting trailer and learn more. Call 302-4381 or e-mail istrachan@cob.edu.bs to register.

All information to be considered for placement in the Bulletin should be sent to the address below NO LATER THAN 12 noon on Fridays.
