English In The Park

English in the Park was a success on Thursday as students eagerly participated. Aquinas College, CC Sweeting, CL Gibson, CR Walker and Doris Johnson Senior schools were represented. An open mic, an exciting Jeopardy game, and a Spelling Bee kicked off the event. Students enjoyed the entertainment by the ‘AND’ Crew, a group of rap and poetry artists.

The event was done to stimulate an awareness of the many career options available to those who pursue a Bachelor of Arts Degree in English or a Minor in Drama and Film, Bahamian and Caribbean Literature and even Linguistics. BTC was supplied phone card and phones as gifts.

Violence Symposium

The College of The Bahamas will host a Violence Research Symposium on Thursday, November 3rd 2011 at 9:30 a.m. in the Performing Arts Centre of The College’s Oakes Field Campus.

Faculty of The College of The Bahamas have collaborated across a broad spectrum of academic disciplines to research factors and trends that impact violence in country. It is anticipated that the research findings will contribute to national development by allowing for informed debate on issues surrounding crime.

The presentations will cover topics relating to: restorative justice; gun ownership; prison inmates; public displays of violence; the media coverage of violence; and the effects of violence on children.
Vaccinations at Campus Nursing

Vaccines are available at the Campus Nursing Office on the first floor of the Portia Smith Student Services Centre: Influenza; MMR (Measles-Mumps-Rubella); Hepatitis B; DPT (Diphtheria-Tetanus-Pertussis). Faculty, staff and students may receive any of these vaccinations at the Nursing Office between 9:00am and 5:00pm on weekdays.
