“No Country Should Outsource the Higher Education of Its Citizens.”

President’s Holiday Cheer

Faculty and staff are invited to the 2011 President’s Holiday Cheer. This event will take place on December 23rd at 1:00 p.m. in the courtyard of CHMI. The programme includes showing off your office talents (these include individuals or group selections, poetry, dancing, etc.). Please email your group’s participation to prescob@cob.edu.bs by Monday - December 19, 2011.

Congratulations Chevette Black

Ms. Chevette Black, AA ‘08 currently pursuing her BEd. in Secondary Education was crowned best female overall debator in the Caribbean region and second place in the competition at a regional disaster management debate held in Trinidad and Tobago.

Congratulations Chevette!

Office Christmas Decoration Contest

The office Christmas decoration contest is back! Let’s celebrate Christmas together by dressing up our offices. Which office will claim the floating trophy this year? All participating offices will be judged before Dec. 23rd by a panel of experts and the winners announced at The President’s Holiday Cheer.

COB Students Attend BIFF’s Classes

As part of its overall sponsorship of the Bahamas International Film Festival, RBC Royal Bank sponsored 20 students from the College of the Bahamas in the first week of December to attend master classes in acting and directing during The Bahamas International Film Festival.

2012 Study for the US Institute for Scholars and Secondary School Educators

The Public Affairs Section of the U.S. Embassy Nassau is pleased to announce the 2012 Study of the United States Institutes (SUSI). Applications are due to the U.S. Embassy on or before Wednesday, January 4, 2012. For more information, visit http://nassau.usembassy.gov.

All information to be considered for placement in the Bulletin should be sent to the address below NO LATER THAN 12 noon on Fridays.