March Migration Events

March 22, 2012
Foreign Languages Day
Organized by the School of Communication and Creative Arts.

March 26, 2012
Book Launch – Frenand Leger
Organized by SCCA and Chapter One Bookstore

March 31, 2012
Book Festival – Migration: Literary Journeys
Organized by Chapter One Bookstore, SES, LIMS

Brown Bag Presentation
Dr. Carlton Watson and Dr. Zorene Curry are the next presenters. 12:30p.m., March 26th, 2012, auditorium, Harry C. Moore Library. The topics are respectively: Investigating the Effectiveness of a Web Based Homework System as a Physics BGCSE Intelligent Tutor and Female Urinary Incontinence in The Bahamas.

Meet the Writer
Bahamian novelist, poet and professor, Dr. Ian Strachan will be reading from his upcoming novel Blind Days. Upstairs in Chapter One Bookstore, 6:00 pm, Thursday March 22nd, 2012.

Alumni Mix & Mingle
Join COB Alumni, friends and faculty at Buillon lounge in the British Colonial Hilton, tomorrow, March 13th at 6:30 p.m. Come out and reconnect with your COB family and friends.

National Discourse on Women’s Suffrage

Last week, The College joined the Bureau of Women’s Affairs in facilitating a national discourse about women’s suffrage and issues related to gender during the Women’s Suffrage Symposium. The event, held March 6-9, attracted the attendance of a broad cross-section of citizens. Visit the Suffrage webpage at www.cob.edu.bs for presentations and the photo gallery.
Economic Resiliency Discussion

Experts from government regulatory agencies and the financial services sector will lead a discussion on Bahamian Economic Resiliency and the Global Economic Crisis, 6:30p.m., March 21st 2012 at The College’s Performing Arts Centre. Panelists will include: Hon. Zhivargo Laing, Minister of State for Finance; Wendy Craig, Central Bank Governor; Michael Halkitis, CPA; Dr. Olivia Saunders, COB, and Mr. Anthony Ferguson, CFA. R.S.V.P. by March 16th at 302-4594 or email: aacleare@cob.edu.bs

SES-MOE Workshops

On March 8th-9th the School of English Studies in association with the Ministry of Education hosted several teachers' workshops to promote awareness and understanding of the first-year English classes at COB. The workshops were designed to bridge the gap between high school and college level English so that students can perform at their best in college. Schools Represented this year included: Government High School, Doris Johnson Senior High School, Kingsway Academy, C. I. Gibson Senior High School and St. Anne's High School. Participants described the workshops as motivational, very relevant and excellent.

Meet the Writer

On Thursday, March 8th, Ms. Sonia Farmer, winner of the Small Axe Prize for Poetry, held a reading as part of the Meet the Writer series. The event was well attended and featured poetry by two other Bahamian poets, Ms. Janice Lynn and Mr. Philip Armbrister, assistant professor, School of Mathematics, Physics and Technology.

Foreign Languages Day

You are invited to the 8th Annual Foreign languages Day. Thursday, March 22nd, 2012, 2:00 - 4:00 p.m., Independence Park. Come out and be transported to Spain, Cuba, France, Africa and more! It’s a free round-trip ticket to travel the world!

Campus Cleanup

Would you like to see a cleaner campus? Interested in being a part of the solution? Join the COB Campus Clean Up, March 22nd and 23rd 2:00-4:00 p.m. For information on how to get involved, contact Campus Life 302-4525.

SIS Outreach Series

The Small Island Sustainability Programme’s 201 class is hosting an Outreach Series on issues of sustainability. This week’s panel is “6 Degrees” Thursday, March 15th - 10:00 a.m. - Noon, HCM Library Auditorium. Organized by: SIS student Heidi Pluntke. Panelists: Lisa Benjamin, Tarran Simms and Peter Douglas.

March - Cake & Conversation

The March Cake & Conversation will be held on March 27th, 2012 at 1 p.m. A-Block boardroom. Please call or email Sandra Dean-Smith to confirm attendance at 302-4301 or email sdeansmith@cob.edu.bs. Cake compliments of the CHMI chefs.