New Campus Theme

The Annual Campus Theme (ACT) committee met on Friday, June 8th to review suggestions submitted for the next campus theme. The group unanimously voted for “Forty” as the College’s next two-year theme which encapsulates The Bahamas’ forty years of independence and the inception of our beloved institution. An official launch of “Forty” with exciting opportunities for the development of special events, research opportunities, art/music competitions and more will roll out in August 2012. The ACT committee thanks The College community for its votes and suggestions.
A Concert for Spring

The College’s Concert Choir presented A Concert for Spring on Sunday, 20th May, 2012 in the Performing Arts Centre. The concert, a wonderful collection of songs interspersed with performances by special guests artists, Abigail Wallace, violinist and Simone Davies, dancer, was a notable success. The songs enthralled everyone, particularly those that comprised the Caribbean Medley performed at the conclusion of the programme. With colourful costumes, skillful choreography, and the direction of Mrs. Audrey Dean-Wright, the choir provided the enthusiastic audience with a memorable evening.
