NOTES & NEWS

DOC’s team thanks the players and congratulates the winners of the “Go Red” table tennis competition. The students won 3-2 in singles and 2-0 in doubles.

Due to popular demand the DOC’s office has extended voting for its Valentine Pie Competition to Friday, February 20, 2009. The competition is one that showcases the most engaged and supportive among the faculty and staff. Voting, in the SUB, 9 am – 4 pm daily, is open to students, faculty and staff. Valid ballots are those that have selected one male and one female nominee.

Beginning the week of February 16th, The Office of Communication will be conducting student and faculty focus groups as part of our university branding efforts and wishes to include as many students in the process as possible. Coming out of this exercise will be the determination of a logo, school colours, official name etc. Be a leader; take part in moving The College to University. Persons wanting to participate can sign up in the DOC’s office.

All challenged (i.e. disabled) students are asked to contact the DOC’s office on or before Feb. 27 regarding a survey it wishes to conduct. You may email them at campuslife@cob.edu.bs or phone them at 302-4576.
