ATTENTION STUDENTS!

Follow these important security tips to stay safe and secure!

1) Minimize the amount of cash that you carry on you;
2) Always lock the door when using labs late in the evenings;
3) Always lock your car and take your keys;
4) Park near a security booth if you are staying on campus late;
5) If you are awaiting a ride during late evenings or at night, stay near a Security presence.

NOTICES

STUDENT LIFEGUARDS NEEDED!
The College is seeking student lifeguards for the pool for the 2009/10 academic year. Good swimmers, with or without certification, are encouraged to contact Miss Russell in the Athletics Department for more details at ext. 4349.

CONGRATULATIONS!
Congratulations to Keith Cox, Wellness Centre coordinator, who joined hundreds of cyclists this past weekend in the 2009 Ride for Hope, an event designed to raise funds for cancer care, treatment and research programmes in The Bahamas. Persons from all over The Bahamas, young and old, converged on the island of Eleuthera with their bicycles to participate in the event. Cox said he learned of the event last year and decided that he would participate. He proudly displayed his College of The Bahamas Athletics Department shirt during the ride.

BAHAMAS@SUNRISE ON THE WEB

CAREERS WEBSITE

Please note that the website address in the March 2009 issue of Spectrum for accessing the Careers Website is incorrect: it should be https://bahamas-csm.symplicity.com/students
Don’t forget the ‘s’ after ‘http’ or you will not be able to get on.
