CHOOSING A SUMMER CAMP

Choosing the right summer camp can become a daunting task, but there are some guidelines you can follow to find the right one for your kids:

- Start with an evaluating your child’s needs and what you require.
- Pick 3 or 4 camps that meet your criteria.
- Conduct your own investigations into them: request brochures, speak with staff and visit the camp, if possible. Then look for reasons to exclude each camp from your short list.
- Of the remaining camps choose the one that you feel is the best fit.

WORLD CONFERENCE ON HIGHER EDUCATION

President Hodder is attending the 2009 World Conference on Higher Education in Paris, France which will examine the role of higher education in addressing major global challenges. While at the conference, President Hodder will participate in a round table discussion on The Social Responsibility of Higher Education: Addressing the Challenges of Our Times. The conference provides a platform for key stakeholders to make a renewed commitment to the development of higher education and agree on action-oriented recommendations to meet the growing and multiple demands of society.
