

THE COLLEGE OF THE BAHAMAS BULLETIN

STAFF OBSERVER NOMINATIONS & ELECTIONS

The College Council has approved September 29, 2009 as the date for the election of Staff Observer to the Council. Copies of nomination forms and the Election Code may be collected from the Council's Office, Room A-99, between the hours of 8:30a.m. - 4:00p.m.

The deadline for nominations is September 15, 2009.

GREEN GRANT

The International Association of Universities has awarded The College of The Bahamas a grant that will support our efforts to Green the Academy. The grant provides funding for a learning visit to Rhodes University in South Africa to discuss ways to incorporate sustainable management practices throughout the campus community and within the academic curriculum. Faculty members who are interested should submit a one-page letter of interest expressing how they might benefit from this learning opportunity and how they would present their experience to the College community. Two faculty members will be selected to represent The College at meetings in South Africa from November 22 - 27, 2009.

Letters are due on Wednesday, September 9, 2009 at noon and should be addressed to Valdez K. Russell, International Relations Liaison, Office of Research, Graduate Programmes and International Relations, The College of The Bahamas.
