WRITERS OF LIGHT EXHIBITION

Thurs. Nov. 26th
The School of Communication and Creative Arts presents “Writers of Light 2009 - Soul Caption” November 26, 2009 at 6:30p.m. at the Chapter One Bookstore, Thompson Boulevard. Come out and view the work of JRN 201 students.

Seasonal Flu Vaccination

Only seasonal flu vaccinations will be administered this week and not the H1N1 Influenza A vaccinations as was previously reported. According to the Ministry of Health, the H1N1 vaccinations have not arrived in The Bahamas. Nevertheless, this week all faculty, staff and students will be able to receive vaccinations against the seasonal flu. Please bring your College ID with you when you come to the nurse’s office on the ground floor of the Portia Smith Student Services Centre. Seasonal Flu shots will be available at the Northern Bahamas Campus at a date to be announced soon. A new schedule for the H1N1 inoculations will be given once new arrangements are made.

For further information contact: Campus Nurse, Portia Smith Student Services Centre, ground floor West Wing, 302-4556

Ministry of Health H1N1 hotlines: Monday - Friday 9a.m. - 6p.m. 502-4790 or 502-4728; Monday - Friday and weekends 6p.m.-9a.m. 502-7811, 502-7812, 502-7855 or visit www.bahamas.gov.bs/health or email healtheducationdivision@bahamas.gov.bs

NATIONAL EDUCATION PLAN

The Ministry of Education is seeking input on the ‘Draft National Education Plan’. A copy of the document is available in the Special Collections Unit of the Main Library. Comments may be submitted to the Ministry of Education. Thompson Blvd. or via the Ministry’s page on the Bahamas Government website: www.bahamas.gov.bs.

LUNCH WITH THE PRESIDENT

Students, take advantage of this final opportunity to spend 90 minutes with College President Janyne Hodder to discuss your concerns or questions about The College. Mark this date in your calendar: November 27. If you’re interested send your full name and telephone contact to prescob@cob.edu.bs. On Thursday morning 12 names will be randomly selected and we will notify the persons selected no later than noon on Thursday.
