Application for Private Book Award

The College of The Bahamas

Application Deadline:
Fall Semester (August) - First Friday in February
Spring Semester (January) - First Friday in June

Overview of the Award.
Book awards are given to deserving Bahamian students who are pursuing a specific discipline or degree program at The College of The Bahamas and who are in financial need. Students who benefit from these awards are assessed on the basis of The College's financial need criteria.

Book awards do not cover the cost of tuition and fees; they provide assistance with the cost of books only.

Students who are interested in applying for a Book Award should visit The College's website (www.cob.edu.bs) to see the list of available awards and specific award criteria.

How do you qualify for a Book Award?
To be eligible, the applicant must:
- be a Bahamian citizen;
- be enrolled in a bachelor or an associate degree program at The College of The Bahamas;
- be enrolled, or plan to be enrolled, in at least 12 credit hours each semester;
- meet any additional criteria as specified by the donor of the Book Award for which you are applying;
- complete and submit this application with all of the required documentation by the stipulated deadline.

Overview of the Application Process.
Step 1: Complete the Private Book Award application form.
Step 2: Submit completed application along with all required documentation to Scholarships and Financial Aid at the Oakes Field Campus or the Office of the Associate Vice President at the Northern Bahamas Campus by the stipulated deadline.

All awards are contingent upon available funds. Incomplete applications will not be considered.
